

County News Items

Interesting Facts Gathered Over the County During the Week.

E. W. Herring for school supplies.

Roy Davis is spending his vacation at Excelsior Springs.

Walter Taylor of Fayette spent Sunday visiting with his father and other relatives at this place.

Mrs. H. Lotter and baby girl of Moberly are the guests of Mrs. Geo. Chapman this week.

To cure a headache take our Magic Headache tablet.

H. M. SIGLOCH.

Mrs. Jas. Mason went to Callao, Mo., last Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelso.

Mrs. Peter Cuddy of Kingman, Kas., is visiting with her nephew, Lee Cuddy, and family of two miles west of town.

Try a few thousand of those Star A Star shingles from the Keytesville Lumber Co. They are good ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bertach of Kansas City were called to Keytesville last Friday by the illness of her foster father, Judge T. T. Cruise.

Mrs. C. P. Flemming, nee Miss Mary Martin, of Delhart, Tex., came in Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Martin.

Something cold and refreshing? Herring's fountain is the place to get it—also fine candies and cigars.

Rev. J. A. Snarr and H. B. Richardson were delegates from the Methodist church here to the district meeting at Fayette last week.

Get your window glass and paint from the Keytesville Lumber Co.

Mrs. Wm. Redding of Ochel-tree county, Texas, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Moore, and other relatives in Chariton county.

We have a few coal heating stoves that we will close out at cost. We are quitting the stove business.—Keytesville Lumber Co.

Mrs. J. H. McNally of Koboka, Mo. returned home Friday after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Bushnell of five miles northwest of Keytesville.

Mrs. T. F. White, who was called to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Milt Finnell of Kansas City last week, returned home Saturday, leaving Mrs. Finnell much improved.

Hon. Jas. D. Shewalter, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senate, will speak in Keytesville at the courthouse, Friday, Sept. 30, at 1:30 p. m. Come out and hear him.

For watches, any reliable make from $1 up—go to Sigloch's. Get one that is inspected, fitted and timed by a watch expert, they cost no more at the start, and will cost you less in the future.

Mrs. John Crawford who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. I. H. Green, at Crowder, Okla., arrived home last Saturday, accompanied by her daughter, who will spend some time here among old friends and acquaintances.

Howard Bradshaw spent Sunday in Salisbury.

Judge Morehead of Brunswick was in Keytesville Monday.

Miss Eva Keeting visited friends in Triplett last week.

Alfred Henke of Salisbury was a Sunday visitor at the home of Anton Keeting.

All the newest creations in millinery at Miss Anna Rucker's. 34tf

Don't forget that the Keytesville Lumber Co. carry the latest assortment of lumber there is in the county and our prices are always right.

John Redd of Mojave, Cal., spent a day in Keytesville the latter part of last week shaking hands with his many friends and renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. J. M. Collins of Champaign, Ill., who came to Keytesville to attend the funeral of her brother, the late C. P. Vandiver, returned to her home Monday.

Misses Luella, Chris and Mary Eliza Hershey, daughters of Lou Hershey of the north part of town are recovering from a siege of typhoid fever. Their many friends will be glad to hear of their convalescence.

If your watch don't keep time or if some one else couldn't put it in proper shape, don't blame the watch, bring it to me. I'll guarantee it to be o. k.—if I do the work. H. M. SIGLOCH.

The Board of Appeals for merchants met in regular session Monday with all the members present. There was very little business to attend to and the board adjourned Monday afternoon.

A First Class Farm

For rent to a first-class man—none other need apply. For terms and particulars see

NELSON C. FIELD,
Brunswick, Mo.

We sell
Hard Coal
Soft Coal
Wood Heaters
and Oil Heaters.

Buy a range or Cook Stove from us. New for old.
We trade. Will sell you a Range
on payments.

Will Trade

We Want To Trade for Car Load of Ranges, Heaters and Cooks
and want them NOW, and will trade new stoves for old ones and allow you what they are worth.
My home is in a Coal Mining Town and I can easily dispose of second-hand stoves. See us at once.

Leader Hardware Store

Brunswick Mo.

Per J. W. Nisbeth

PRIZE SCHEME!

When you want the Coffee that never fails to tickle the palate, remember that I have the

METEOR BLEND

Four Pounds for One Dollar.

After you have purchased 100 packages and return the wrappers to me I will present you

FREE, a McLaughlin's Percolator

Which you will find a great help in making good coffee.

You will also find here a well selected stock of

..STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES..

on which my prices are always right

CRACKERS. CAKES. PICKLES. SALMON,

POTTED HAM AND CHIPPED BEEF

for picnics and fishing parties, all guaranteed to be just right for picnickers and fishermen.

Highest market price paid for Produce and I want yours.

R. J. HALLEY,

PHONE 157.

KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI

Miss Maude Smith was a Keytesville visitor Thursday.

For cooling drinks—Herring's soda fountain.

Mrs. C. P. Vandiver went to St. Louis on a business trip Monday and will remain in the city several days.

Mrs. M. E. Allan of Fulton came in Friday to be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Hugo Bartz Jr., for several weeks.

Drugs, stationery, candies, postcards, jewelry and watches, toilet articles at Herring's drug store.

Miss Jessie Bradshaw went to Salisbury Monday afternoon to visit her friend, Mrs. J. J. Gainer, and to do some shopping.

Take our Magic Headache tablets, for quick relief, and you too, will recommend them to your friends. H. M. SIGLOCH.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hawes of Kansas City are visiting Mrs. Hawes' parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Hill.

The best architects, painters and contractors of the country use Mound City "Horse Shoe" brand house paint exclusively. KEYTESVILLE LUMBER CO.

Foy A. Colyer of Marceline will speak at the city hall in Salisbury Saturday night, Oct. 1, on the subject, "The Tempter of Eve or Man's Relationship to God, Women and Children United."

Miss Anna Rucker has a new, up-to-the minute stock of millinery, with the most experienced trimmer in the county in charge. Therefore see her stock before buying your fall hat. 34tf

Congressman W. W. Rucker is billed to address the voters of Glasgow and vicinity at 3:30 p. m. Friday Sept. 30 and at Fayette Saturday October 1, at 2:30 p. m.

Rev. J. E. Wolfe of Keytesville was here Saturday visiting with his relatives, John Hargrove and family, of near town.—Clinton Hill Rustler.

If you want a hat that is strictly of the latest design at the most moderate price go to Miss Anna Rucker's. 34tf

Mr. and Mrs. Landon Sneed and daughters, Misses Leolyn and Zettie, returned (Saturday) from a month's stay at Nelson, Mo. We are glad to have this popular family in our midst again.

For Sale.

Forty-acre farm, 3-room box house, small stable, good well—good terms at once.

A. F. ARRINGTON.

W. T. Cage of Phoenix, Ariz., a former Chariton countian, who has been visiting relatives and old friends in South Missouri and in this vicinity for several weeks left Saturday for his home. He made the COURIER office a pleasant call and set his subscription up one year.

Hon. John D. Taylor of Keytesville, Chariton county, is in the city on legal business. Mr. Taylor is a prominent attorney of his county and is also the representative from Chariton county in the Missouri legislature.—Marshall Democrat News.

Does your watch loose time, or does your clock strike wrong, if so they should be cleaned. You can have it done by Edgar Wilks at W. C. Gaston's Drug Store. Cheaper than any other place in town. Work guaranteed. 34tf

H. B. Richardson, of Keytesville, while in Moberly last Thursday, lost his gold watch and at once inserted a "lost ad" in the Monitor. Friday morning Will Mason, who had found the time piece returned it to its owner.—Moberly Monitor.

Fresh Eggs Wanted.

I will pay 20c per dozen for all the eggs you can bring me this week, and I will sell you 100 lbs best sugar for $5.90. 100 lbs Patent Hard Wheat Flour $2.95. One bbl. salt for $1.25. Apples apples. If you want apples see me. House of bargains. Phone 29. J. M. HALLEY,

Yes I can fix your barretts, pins, belt buckles, chains, rings, and all broken jewelry. Edgar Wilks at W. C. Gaston's Drug Store. 34tf

Miss Anna Rucker's new fall stock is now in and displayed in the most attractive manner. It comprises all the latest things from the Paris and New York fashions, and with up-to-date trimmers and designers in charge you can get millinery that you know is strictly in fashion and at the most moderate prices. 34tf

Final Settlement Notices.

If you have a final settlement to make at the coming November term of probate court the COURIER would appreciate being favored with the publication of final settlement. Please send it in now if you want us to have it.

Our advertisers have taken a good part of our space this week, for which we are profoundly thankful, and sincerely hope they can see their way clear to continue the good work indefinitely. The ads. speak for themselves and we commend every one of them to our readers as being the best people on earth to trade with.

H. H. Miller, the genial cashier of the Bank of Rothville, came in Sunday, accompanied by his wife, to spend a day or two in Keytesville visiting relatives and attending to business matters. All the people of Keytesville and vicinity are always glad to see Herbert, and he spends most of his time while here shaking hands.

In a quarrel near Forest Green Sunday morning Buck Coy a white man shot a negro whose name was Hayes in the arm. Hayes wound is not necessarily dangerous but it is thought his arm will have to be amputated. It is said both parties had been drinking. Coy escaped and his whereabouts are unknown although officers are diligently searching for him.